

Merchant Terms

As Shopify merchant you use the Shopify API to connect through our services towards your accounting software.

In summary:

* we are responsible for our services according to the general terms

<https://www.webwinkelactoren.nl/ICTOfficeVoorwaarden.pdf>

* Shopify is indemnified from all responsibility

----

More completely and formally, as developer we operate under the following terms https://www.shopify.com/legal/api-terms?itcat=partner\_dashboard&itterm=aug31update and inform Merchants that: (i) Shopify is not liable for any fault in the Application or any harm that may result from its installation or use; (ii) except where expressly stated by Shopify, Shopify cannot provide assistance with the installation or use of the Application; and (iii) Developer is solely responsible, if at all, for any liability which may arise from a Merchant's access to or use of the Application, including: (A) the development, use, marketing or distribution of or access to the Application, including support of the Application; or (B) Developer's access, use, distribution or storage of Merchant Data.